

NuViewHR® -- Addressing HR's Daily Challenges

NuView Systems, a global provider of innovative Human Resource and Payroll software, releases 6 new product videos to demonstrate how NuViewHR's product suite addresses HR challenges and provides significant time and costs savings to client organizations.

HR is a dynamic, ever-changing environment, filled with daily challenges in recruiting, compensation & benefits, performance, compliance, reporting and metrics.

The new videos take real-life situations and demonstrate how NuView's technology leverages key information, automates business processes, uses wizards to step employees through life event, open enrollment and other processes, follow approval paths and generate reporting and metrics for actionable, strategic decision making.

By using NuViewHR, organizations streamline process, boost the bottom line, improve employee relations, provide faster response times to employees and managers and generate significant time and cost savings, across the enterprise, on a global basis.

These 2-3 minute vignettes show how NuViewHR can help HR, Payroll and C-Suite Executives enable business strategy through NuViewHR's advanced technology platform.
