

Inc. Magazine Announces America's Fastest-Growing Private Companies

NuView Ranks No. 901 on the Inc. 5000, Reflecting Three-Year Sales Growth of 335.2%

NEW YORK, August 12, 2009 -- Inc. magazine today ranked NuView Systems #901 in its third annual Inc. 5000 List, an exclusive ranking of the nation's fastest-growing private companies.

The list represents the most comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy—America's independent-minded entrepreneurs. Consumer electronics maker Vizio, Internet giant GoDaddy, rental car service Zipcar, and beverage maker Honest Tea are among the prominent brands featured on this year's list.

“Savvy trend spotters and those who invest in private companies know that the Inc. 5000 is the best place to find out about young companies that are achieving success through a wide variety of unprecedented business models, as well as older private companies that are still expanding at an impressive rate,” said Inc. 5000 Project Manager Jim Melloan. “That’s why the list is so eagerly anticipated every year.”

NuView’s impressive three year growth, at 335%, coincides with the company’s investment in product and people, allowing it to scale for large global projects, while building an enviable client roster that includes Booz & Co, Hard Rock Hotel & Casino, Wasserman Media Group, Corbett Accel Healthcare, Covenant Management Systems, Emergent BioSolutions, American Superconductor, Diocese of Providence, HomeAway, Baker Hostetler, Locke Supply, EMD Chemicals, Marine Credit Union, Transportation Research Center, Applied Research Associates, Venable LLP, Vision Solutions and many others, covering all vertical markets.

Shafiq Lokhandwala, CEO, commented that “we are thrilled to be named to such a prestigious list, among such great companies. Our phenomenal growth shows that our investment in product and staff has helped push us to become a global HRIS and Payroll leader, enabling business strategy through HR technology. We look forward to continued growth and moving up in the rankings.”

The Inc. 5000 at a Glance

Now in its third year, the Inc. 5000 is the most comprehensive portrait of fast-growing private companies assembled anywhere. Each profile is researched and reported by one of the dozens of writers assigned to the project and includes interviews with the CEO's of almost all the companies on the list. Many firms are innovators with little coverage elsewhere; many others are using their cutting-edge savvy to grow their market share in traditional products and services, and are similarly underreported by the rest of the business media.

In total, the companies on the Inc. 5000 have created more than 1 million jobs. Health is the top employer with 156,223 jobs, followed by Business Products & Services (122,911), IT Services (89,632), Food & Beverage (86,572), and Construction (65,494).

IT Services had the most companies on this year's list with 658, followed by Business Products & Services (502), Advertising & Marketing (398), Construction (354), and Manufacturing (342).

The Inc. 5000 posted an aggregate revenue of $214 billion in 2008, up nearly 16 percent from the previous year. The top five industries by total revenue include Health ($22.7 billion), Business Products & Services ($19.6 billion), Construction ($18.8 billion), Energy ($14.7 billion), and IT Services ($13.2 billion).

The Hottest Regions for Fast-Growing Companies

Once again, California tops the Inc. 5000 with the most companies of any state with 612. The Golden State is followed by Texas (393), New York (316), Florida (263), and Virginia (261). All 50 states, plus Washington, D.C., and Puerto Rico, are represented on this year's list.

New York boasts 371 Inc. 5000 companies, making it the top metropolitan area, followed by Washington, D.C. (317), Los Angeles (253), Atlanta (209), and Chicago (203).
